The adoption of AI in business has boomed in recent years, and it has given rise to a change in how employees feel about the technology. No longer focused on job replacement, exposure to AI and seeing it in action has helped many to see how much it can assist them throughout their workday.

EMPLOYEES WANT MORE AI IN THE WORKPLACE

The research was conducted in February 2021 by 3GEM on behalf of SnapLogic. 400 employees were surveyed, including 200 in the US and 200 in the UK.

OFFICE WORKERS EMBRACE AI IN THE WORKPLACE

- 81% believe AI improves their overall performance at work.
- 68% want their employers to deploy more AI-based technology.
- 56% stated they are already using AI to assist with their daily work.

AI DRIVING SIGNIFICANT BENEFITS FOR OFFICE WORKERS

- 89% of employees believe that AI could support them in up to half of their workload.
- Top benefits employees gain from using AI:
  - 61% improved decision making or faster time to insights.
  - 49% improved productivity.
  - 38% improved creativity.
  - 37% better collaboration between teams.
  - 35% better engagement with customers.

TOP WORK TASKS WHERE AI CAN HELP

- Top three workplace tasks employees think would benefit from AI:
  - 43% understanding data and how trends and patterns can aid decision making.
  - 41% moving data from one place to another.
  - 41% accessing data residing in different places across the business.

The research was conducted in February 2021 by 3GEM on behalf of SnapLogic. 400 employees were surveyed, including 200 in the US and 200 in the UK.